RN SURGICAL SERVICES Date Posted: 07/27/09
Full-time - Variable Shifts, plus call rotation

PRINCIPAL JOB DUTIES:

- Coordinates total care of patient in the Surgical Suite, utilizing the nursing process: assessment, planning, implementation and evaluation
- Included within this assignment is the responsibility for ensuring effective communication between him or herself, the patient, other staff, supervisors, physicians, and other hospital department personnel
- Performs other duties as assigned

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Graduate of accredited school of registered nursing
- Current California RN license
- Two years recent perioperative nursing experience required including orthopedics, gynecology, and general surgery
- CNOR certification highly desirable
- Current ACLS certification preferred
- CNOR and ACLS certifications, and amount of experience listed above my be waived at the discretion of the Chief Clinical Officer
- Current CPR certification
- Ability to communicate in Spanish highly desirable
- Capable of performing position related physical requirements

Pay Range:
RN Level II, III – depending on experience and qualifications
$31.97 – $41.27 per hour

Applications accepted until positions filled PCN 10